pitcher's helpers (F1a, F1b), one catcher (F2), one first baseman (F3), one second baseman (F4), one third baseman (F5), one short stop (F6), and six outfielders (F7-12). The outfield begins on the grass behind the base paths.

Outfielders may not come off the grass onto the infield area until the ball reaches the batter. Only two fielders (the pitcher's helpers) are allowed to be as close as 40 feet from the back of home plate before the ball reaches the batter.

The pitcher's helpers must have both feet behind the 40-foot pitcher's rubber within the pitching circle when the ball reaches the batter. The pitcher's helpers must wear batting helmets with attached face masks and heart guards at all times when playing the position.

- Regular Season only: A player can play a single defensive position for no more than three (3) innings. This rule is excepted for tournament play.
- When a team has 12-13 players available defensively, the team must place two pitcher's helpers – F1a, F1b – and five outfielders along with five standard infield players (F2, F3, F4, F5, F6). In the event a team has 11 players or less, the team must furnish a minimum of one (but not more than two) pitcher's helper(s) – F1a, F1b – and a maximum of five outfielders while ensuring all five aforementioned traditional infield positions are occupied by a player as well. After the first pitch is thrown, all players must continue to play their assigned position for the entire defensive inning (either three outs or five runs) unless injured during play.

Junior Rookie: There are no substitutions, and all players play the field at one time. The catcher's position must be filled with someone over the age of 11. Once a ball is batted into play, the catcher's position is covered by the fielding team and not the person over 11 acting as catcher for the coach pitcher. Only two fielders (pitcher's helpers) are allowed to be as close as 40 feet from the back of home plate and must remain in the pitcher's circle before the ball reaches the batter. The pitcher's helpers must wear batting helmets with an attached face mask and heart guards and must be no closer than the coach pitcher.

Tee-Ball and Challenger: There are no substitutions, and all players play the field at one time. One fielder must play in the catcher's box. Only two fielders (pitcher's helpers) are allowed to be closer than 40 ft from the back of home plate before the ball reaches the batter. The pitcher's helpers must wear batting helmets and must be no closer than the coach pitcher.

Rookie: To promote the speed of the game, the defensive team may choose to place an individual behind the catcher to assist with passed balls. Any individual behind the catcher who is younger than eighteen (18) must wear a helmet with a facemask.
